Our oldest vineyard is about 60 years old. These are vines that are true to their roots, situated on a high plateau in Deidesheim, and interspersed with small concentrations of sandstone and pebbles. A vineyard that continues to be stable even in dry or wet years thanks to its deep roots. Three days of maceration, the smallest golden yellow grapes, old wooden barrels, very high extract values and huge ageing potential. As far as we are concerned, this wine can articulate more than we can express with words. Given that we have only been vinifying the vineyard ourselves since 2016, we are unable to give you an exact drinking window here, but we are certain that such a window will be large.
